

Southern University at New Orleans
Capability Statement

DUNS No. 108193707
EIN: 726000817

NAICS ID(s): 541710/541712, 541519, 541512, 541330
CAGE: 1HTW6

Certificates, Accreditations, Registrations: SACSCOC, CSWE, AACSB, CAEP, AAFCS, CAHIIM

POC: Dr. William Belisle, Director for Grants and Sponsored Programs
Address: 6400 Press Drive, New Orleans, LA 70126
Tel: (504)284-5422, Email: wbelisle@suno.edu

OVERVIEW

Mission: Southern University at New Orleans, a public, historically black university, empowers and promotes the upward mobility of diverse populations of traditional and nontraditional students through quality academic programs, teaching, research, and service to achieve excellence in higher education using various teaching and learning modalities.

Vision: Southern University at New Orleans will be a leading urban university—a laboratory to discuss urban issues not only for the City of New Orleans but also across the country.

Overview/Business Data: SUNO was founded September 4, 1956, is located in New Orleans, LA and presently has 2,308 students and 145 faculty.

Accreditation: Southern University at New Orleans is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges & Schools (SACS) to award Associates, Bachelors & Masters degrees.

RESEARCH CAPABILITIES AND AREAS

Natural Sciences: Mathematical/applied and computational mathematics, nuclear engineering, experimental nuclear physics, heavy ion collisions, theoretical physics, microbiology & molecular biology, pathogenic microbiology, immunology, human anatomy and physiology, pharmacology, zoology, chemistry, forensic science

Computer Science/Computer Information Systems: Cyber security, data mining & content management, data analysis, economic analysis & forecasting, economic impact studies, program evaluation, supply chain management

Social Sciences and Humanities: Museum studies, disaster management, addiction counseling, criminal justice and political science

Social Sciences: Trauma informed systems, integrative behavioral health, crisis intervention, suicide prevention & intervention, Children, youth, and family services, addictive behaviors,- prevention and treatment, domestic violence, aging services, mental health first aid, forensic social work, & Critical Cultural Competency

Education and Human Development: Counseling, program evaluation and assessment, curriculum development, CAEP

FACILITIES

The Computer Information Systems Department is staffed by six terminally-qualified faculty members with expertise in various IT fields and offers courses and training in four computer labs equipped with state-of-the art technology. Over the last decade, the university has built the Information Technology Center, the College of Business, the Millie M. Charles School of Social Work, the Natural Sciences Building, the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences Building, an on-campus Small Business Incubator, and the College of Education and Human Development Building.

PAST PERFORMANCE

Recent research awards received from NASA EPSCoR/Louisiana Board of Regents, Louisiana Space Grant Consortium/NASA, NSF, NEH, NIH, U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), DOE/National Nuclear Security Administration, DOE/Los Alamos National Laboratories, Louisiana Biomedical Research Network, Louisiana Board of Regents R&D, Oak Ridge National Laboratories, LA Board of Regents SURE